

50 years of the Hutch Award

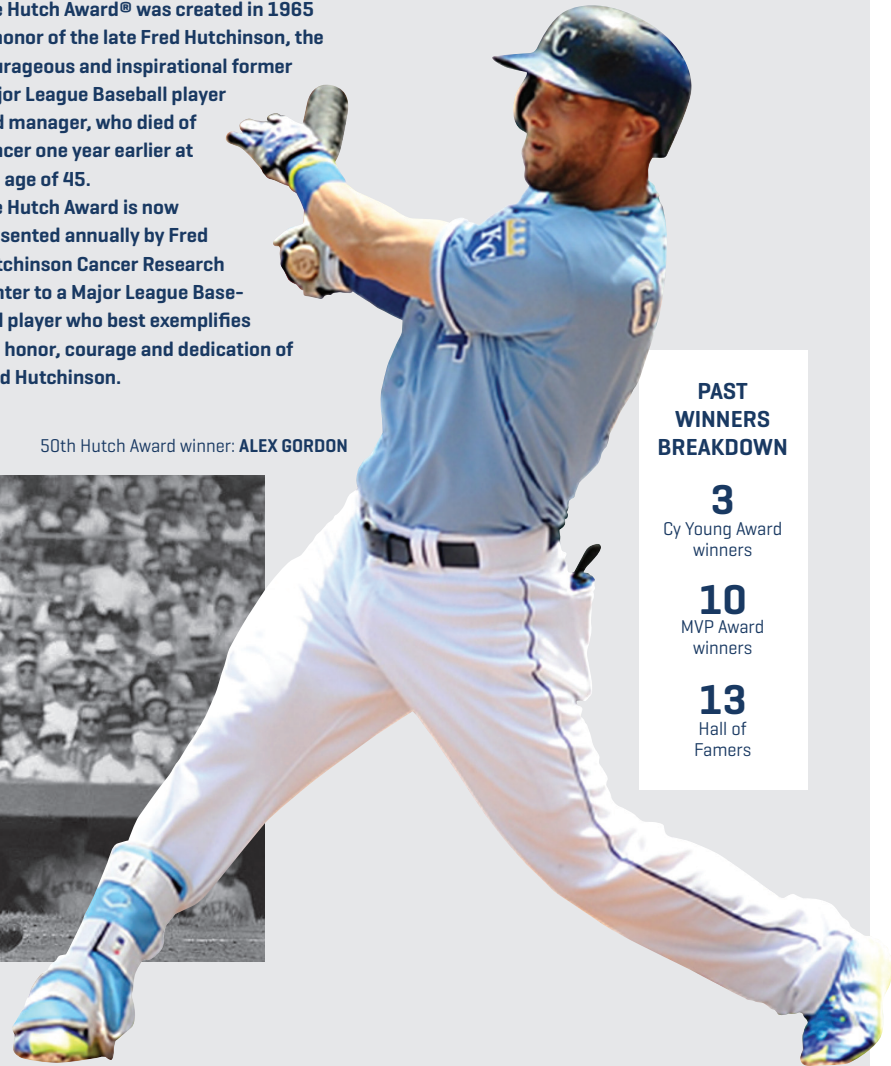

The Hutch Award® was created in 1965 in honor of the late Fred Hutchinson, the courageous and inspirational former Major League Baseball player and manager, who died of cancer one year earlier at the age of 45.

The Hutch Award is now presented annually by Fred Hutchinson Cancer Research Center to a Major League Baseball player who best exemplifies the honor, courage and dedication of Fred Hutchinson.

50th Hutch Award winner: ALEX GORDON

First Hutch Award winner: MICKEY MANTLE
