

Challenging Cases in Oncology Care Symposium

Friday, February 19, 2027 • 8 a.m. – 4 p.m. PT

Bell Harbor International Conference Center, Seattle

Fred Hutch Cancer Center and BC Cancer invite you to the Challenging Cases in Oncology Care Symposium.

This interactive, case-based program will feature complex cases in solid tumors and hematologic malignancies. Expert faculty from Fred Hutch and BC Cancer will lead interactive discussions on diagnostic and therapeutic challenges, emerging evidence, and multidisciplinary strategies for optimizing patient care. Participants will gain practical insights into complex clinical decision-making and the evolving landscape of oncology treatment.

This symposium is intended for medical oncologists, hematologists, advanced practice providers, pharmacists, nurses, fellows, and other healthcare professionals involved in cancer care.
